

BRIEF PROFILE

Prof. Mohammad Zulkifle is presently serving as the I/C Director, National Institute of Unani Medicine, Bangalore. Previously he has also served as Head of the Department, Tahafuzzi wa Samaji Tib, Ilmul Jarahat and Hospital Superintendent of NIUM hospital. An academician by profession and surgeon with special interest in Ulcer treatment. Prof. Mohd Zulkifle has more than 20 years of teaching and clinical experience. He has more than 100 publications to his credit and has guided Postgraduate of Unani Medicine for their MS/MD thesis as supervisor/co-supervisor.

Since last 20 years he is striving for radical reforms in syllabus of U.G. and P.G. courses in order to make them compatible with the development in the field of Unani Medicine, so that P.G. of Unani Medicine can cope successfully with the challenges of modern era and can contribute significantly in the National Health Care System.

He has been the driving force in compiling the Research work carrying and carried out at NIUM in the form of an anthology going to be published soon. The gamut of research encapsulate in this book shall pave the way for further researches and prove a beacon for the aspirants of research scholars of Unani Medicine. He presented many of his works in National and International conferences held across India, he had been part of many delegations deputed from time to time by the Govt. of India for the development of alternate system of medicine and other allotted work. He was also conferred upon Hakim Ahmad Ashraf Global Award towards his contribution in the field of Unani medicine.

He has served as Member of Selection Committees and Board of Studies in various Universities like Rajiv Gandhi University of Health Sciences, Karnataka and Aligarh Muslim University, Aligarh.

A keen and fervent sportsperson has good interest in all the recreational activities like Yoga, Badminton, Cricket, Gymnasium etc. and always motivates the doctors and other staff to stay cool and be able-bodied from the demanding OPD and IPD environment by joining and participating them in these activities available in the institute.